Celebrating success at F. G. Miller

By VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

Students, graduates and staff celebrated the accomplishments of the 2008-09 school year at F. G. Miller Junior/Senior High School on Thursday night, with a good crowd of proud parents and family members on hand to applaud the annual Awards Night presentations.

St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1 board member Maureen Miller, granddaughter-in-law of the school's namesake, had the honour of presenting this year's Dr. K. C. Miller Best All-Around Student award to Alyx Aarbo, in recognition of her positive attitude, working to potential and her activity and proficiency in sports.

This year's citizenship awards, sponsored by the Order of the Royal Purple, went to junior high student Aaron Graus and senior high student Taylor Jenner.

Academic honours were acknowledged in both junior and senior high, with a special award also going to the top student in each grade.

In Grade 7, Jarred Loughran accepted the Elk Point Co-op award for the top student, with CNRL and Havener Holdings sponsoring honour awards for Loughran and fellow students Dustin Demers, Russell Ference, Sarah Harms, Megan Kinaschuk, Erin Labrie, Madeline Ludlage, Dayle Oster and Brayden Vinge.

Tia Lowry was the top Grade 8 student for the Elk Point Community Lions award, and qualified, along with Many Berg, Leigha Bishop and Alex Webster, for honour awards from E-Can Oilfield Services and Coldwell Banker.

The St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1 award for Grade 9 academic standing went to Kelsey Lindquist, who shared the honours spotlight with Josh Aarbo, Keith Bergquist, Cody Knopp and Kyle Porcina, those awards sponsored by Shamrock Valley Enterprises and the Town of Elk Point. Kyle Porcina also qualified for the Junior High Personal Achievement Award, sponsored by B & R Eckels.

Top Grade 10 academic standing and the Elk Point Insurance award went to Brendan Bishop. He and Seanna Ewasiuk also won honours awards sponsored by Canadian Salt Co.

Town agrees to join regional water system

By VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

Elk Point town council passed a motion at last Monday's regular meeting to partner with the Town and County of St. Paul in a regional water system.

Town manager Myron Goyan was authorized to apply for grants under the Water for Life program. Town representatives will meet with the other municipalities to determine how the partnership will be set up. Goyan indicated that council would prefer to be part of a commission.

EcoCentre contribution

Council discussed its contribution toward the EcoCentre funding, which had been approved back in March 2008, with a $10,000 donation per year in 2008, 2009 and 2010 and an approximately equal amount of in-kind donations of labour and materials. Some of the in-kind work and donation of materials has taken place but until this time, no cash had changed hands. Council agreed to turn over the first two cash donations at this time, along with the cost of soil tests. The cost of the ATCO power installation will be adjusted when the town receives a refund from ATCO.

Construction of an improved driveway for the EcoCentre was also discussed but was tabled until the town hears from Imperial Oil regarding a second access.

Franchise fee

Council agreed to continue to receive a 3.6 per cent franchise fee from ATCO Electric again in 2010.

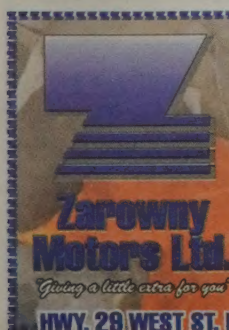

First school

The town has been offered ownership, for a nominal fee, of Elk Point's first school, which is currently owned by the Elk Point United Church and used as their rummage store. Council tabled its decision until some research is done into the condition of the structure and more discussion takes place regarding a potential use.

Five-year capital budget

The town's five-year capital budget was under discussion. 'Wish lists' are to be prioritized. Council agreed that cast iron water line replacement on 50 Ave. in front of Heritage Lodge is the top priority. More of the line could be changed if funding permits, once the necessary engineering design work is done and the project goes to tender.

Rollovers keep emergency crews busy

By Cst. John Spaans
Elk Point RCMP

On Sept. 23 at 3:20 a.m. Elk Point RCMP, Fire and EMS attended a single vehicle rollover on Twp. Rd. 554. The small SUV rolled into the north ditch and caught on fire. When emergency crews arrived on scene, the vehicle was empty. All occupants fled the location; An extensive search of the area was conducted by all emergency crews. A short time later, two males were found walking on the roadway toward Elk Point. The males were treated for minor injuries and taken to the hospital. After interviewing the males, it was determined that a third occupant was still unaccounted for. Unfortunately, all attempts to locate the third male were negative.

At approximately 9:30 a.m., the third occupant was located sitting next to the remains of the vehicle. RCMP attended the scene with Elk Point EMS and the male was treated for his injuries. When questioned, the male told RCMP that they ran from the scene after being ejected from the vehicle when it rolled. He was lying in a wooded area avoiding the emergency crews. Later in the morning, after the pain of the collision set in, he walked back to the vehicle and waited for someone to help.

Alcohol is believed to have played a role in the collision.

Single Vehicle Rollover
On Sept. 25 at 2:50 p.m., three 911 calls were received regarding a serious collision on Hwy 646 near Range Rd. 60. A Chevrolet Cobalt was traveling westbound at a very high rate of speed when the driver lost control and drove into the north ditch. The vehicle then hit an approach, which launched the vehicle into the air. The vehicle landed on its side before being propelled into the air and into a power pole. The power pole was sheared off approximately 14 feet from the ground. The vehicle continued to roll into a farmer's field before coming to rest. The driver of the vehicle was able to crawl from the wreckage and passing motorists stopped to help. As a result of the collision, the grass in the field surrounding the vehicle caught on fire. Elk Point RCMP, the St. Paul RCMP Collision Analyst, Elk Point Fire and Elk Point EMS attended the scene. The 32-year-old male driver was transported to hospital with minor injuries.

Investigation into the matter is ongoing and charges are being considered against the driver of the vehicle. Initial evidence on scene indicates that the vehicle may have been traveling in excess of 150 kph when the collision occurred.

Second collision on Hwy. 646

Approximately two hours following the collision on Hwy. 646 and Range Rd. 60, a second rollover occurred at the same location. A single vehicle was traveling westbound at highway speeds when deer ran into the driving path. The female driver was able to brake but lost control and the vehicle skidded sideways into the north ditch, rolling once before coming to rest. Elk Point EMS and Fire attended the scene and treated the female driver as a precaution. The driver was not injured as a result of the collision.

Car Jacking Suspect Arrested

On Jan. 1, a male and female used a firearm to conduct a car jacking in Frog Lake. The two suspects drove the car into a ditch and used the firearm to car-jack a Good Samaritan who stopped to lend assistance. An extensive investigation into this matter identified both suspects and multiple charges were laid against the two, including robbery with a firearm and issuing threats. The female suspect was arrested in February, but the male suspect fled the province. On Sept. 27, the 19-year-old male suspect, Tyler Dwaine Johnnie was located and arrested in Selkirk, MB. Johnnie will be returned to Alberta by the Alberta Sheriffs to face his charges in St. Paul Provincial Court.

Assault

On Sept. 26 at 7 p.m., Elk Point RCMP responded to an assault in Fishing Lake. The suspect male entered the home and engaged in an argument with the female victim. During the argument, the male assaulted the female then left the house. An 80-year-old Fishing Lake male has been charged with multiple offenses, including choking to overcome resistance and assault. The female victim was not seriously injured during the occurrence.

Impaired Driving

On Sept. 26 at 6:30 p.m., Elk Point RCMP was alerted to a suspected impaired driver in Frog Lake. The witness stated that the vehicle was driving in and out of ditches and was crossing the centre line. Elk Point RCMP located the suspect vehicle sitting in a ditch on Range Rd. 34A in Frog Lake. The male driver showed gross signs of impairment and was returned to the Elk Point RCMP Detachment where samples of breath were obtained. The 56-year-old Frog Lake male provided samples of breath that indicated a blood alcohol content over twice the legal limit.

Stolen Vehicle

On Sept. 26 at 10 p.m., RCMP were contacted regarding a stolen vehicle in Frog Lake. The owner of the vehicle called to report that their vehicle had been stolen by their babysitter. When the complainant returned home, the car and the babysitter were nowhere to be found. The children were left alone in the house for a very short period of time while the babysitter was away. Members conducted immediate patrols of the area but the vehicle was not located.

At approximately 11:30 p.m., the owner called the police to notify them that the vehicle had been returned. Because the vehicle was returned, the owner was not interested in pursuing criminal charges against the babysitter.

Town agrees to join system

Mayor Parrish Tung feels the town should "aggressively pursue all the grants available for our projects," because "capital project money will be tight for the next few years."

Assistance for curling club

The town is helping Elk Point Curling Club prepare for the season, and council and other volunteers are coming on board to help the club's very small membership get some events underway to encourage more participation. Council agreed to donate $500 in seed money to be used for promotional events.

Golf course

Coun. Dick Millar reported the Elk Point Golf and Country Club has just completed "the best year we've ever had." He indicated the club is interested in meeting with the town regarding maintenance and operation of the campground and recreation park. Mayor Tung asked that the club send a proposal.

Increased library hours

Mayor Tung said that increased library funding would allow the library to be open on Saturday afternoons, once a replacement circulation clerk is hired.

Block parents sought

Elk Point FCSS has indicated that they would like to add to their list of Block Parents, which currently number only three. More information about the program can be obtained from FCSS director Deanna Easthope.

Dinner, diamonds, hats on Community Lions agenda

BY VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The Community Lions Club of Elk Point is alive, well and busy planning another Dinner for Diamonds Ladies' Night Out.

The 31-year-old club, which was down to two or three members only a year ago, and contemplated shutting down, now has "more members than the Elk Point and District Lions," according to Susan Frisby. The renewed interest has them back on track and once more planning events that benefit the community.

"We're aware that there are many women who deserve or need a night out. Therefore, the club has planned an evening of fun, relaxation, and diamonds," member Sandie Bishop adds.

On Saturday, Oct. 17, at the new Arts and Leisure Centre in Elk Point, women will be served a delicious meal, entertained by a hypnotist, and eligible to win diamond jewelry, including beautiful rings, pendants, and earrings, as well as a table for eight at the spring dinner theatre production by the Elk Point dramatic society, and other numerous door prizes, Bishop notes. The event is restricted to ladies 18 or older.

At the last of these dinners, two years ago, "the tickets sold out in three days," and Bishop would not be surprised to see a similar response this year.

Proceeds from the event will be donated back to the community.

"Our theme is 'hats', and we are hoping guests will wear one," she continues, noting that a hat will also be passed for donations to cancer research.

The Community Lions are also busy planning another Trip of the Month Club, and Frisby says, "The tickets should be out before Christmas."

Another traditional Community Lions pre-Christmas activity is their annual Santas Anonymous campaign, and Frisby says letters will be going out Nov. 1 asking for food bank donations, and unwrapped gifts "to help families in our area at Christmas. Please support our programs for a community that shows its generosity."

EDITORIAL

Extraordinary volunteers

When most of us take on a volunteer role, we agree to go to a meeting once a month or so, work at a bingo now and then, sell 50-50s or work a booth shift. Most of us could not even imagine a volunteer role that would have us ready, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, to put our lives on the line to protect the lives or property of others.

However, that, in a nutshell, is what our volunteer firefighters do. Over and above the weekly practice sessions, these devoted men and women are on call whenever an emergency call comes in, whether they are sound asleep or in the middle of Christmas dinner or their child's birthday party. And then there's the times they wash down the arena or supervise Extravaganza bonfires, or otherwise help out our community.

"Thank you" is so little to say, for so much devotion.

WAY BACK WHEN...

Depressed economy, courthouse closure

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF OCT. 6 IN...

1984

With new councillors Walter Lesyk and Alvina Schuhmacher sworn in by Mayor Ed Buck, Elk Point Town Council had the first full slate of council on hand since late June, following as by-election that recorded a good turnout of voters. Elk Point Minor Hockey president John Yakemchuk was at the Agricultural Society annual meeting to present a $2,000 cheque toward arena operating expenses to president Glenn Flanders, who was returned to office by acclamation, along with the rest of his executive.

1989

Town administrator Pat Vincent said that the depressed oil economy had negatively impacted the community, although not to the extent it had been felt in Lloydminster and Bonnyville, and Elk Point is "keeping its nose above water." David Hellquist was named the Best All-Around Student at the F. G. Miller Awards Night, with Anthony Bayduza accepting the Governor General's Bronze Medal and the County of St. Paul award for academic standing.

1994

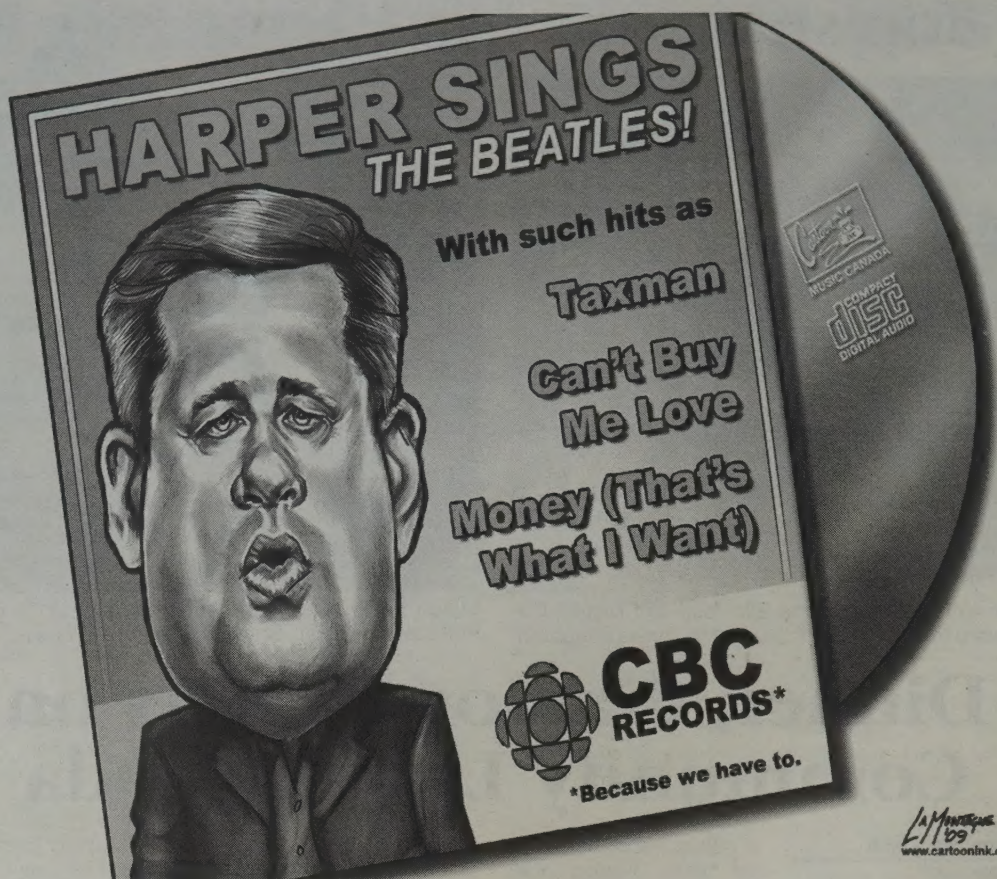

Elk Point's courthouse closed its doors for the final time on Sept. 27, after 28 years of service to the community and surrounding areas, as a result of cutbacks to the Justice Department. Heritage tourism in the area took the next step, with the Bi-Provincial Heritage Tourism Steering Committee receiving confirmation of funding from both provinces to hire a consultant for a feasibility study on the promotion of heritage tourism.

1999

Octogenarians Sid Holthe, Ivan Howe, Karl Heinemann, Pearly Slywka, Rose Kozicky, Carl Dembicki, Bill Boyko and Annie Jacula were honoured at an International Year of Older Persons celebration at the Seniors' Recreation Centre. Elk Point RCMP Sgt. Lyle Marinchuk and Constables Jenny McDonald, Sid Boucher, Mike Caudron, Peter Beady, Simon Cote, Auxiliary Constables John Yettaw and Mike Chubey and office staffers Terrie-Ann Donaldson and Joan Palamarek marked the 125th anniversary of the North West Mounted Police trek to Fort Edmonton and the 25th anniversary of Elk Point's RCMP Centennial cairn.

2004

Travis Lindquist accepted the Best All-Around Student award at F. G. Miller High School awards night, where the Bruce Smith Memorial Award went to Lisa Braga. Bernice Capjack, Alvina Schuhmacher, Lyle Frisby, Dennis Jasinsky, Thomas Kondla and Dwayne Yaremkevich vied for four town council seats in the Oct. 18 election.

GUEST COLUMN

Dysfunctional government

In the news of last week, we heard and read several comments on our Canadian political system being dysfunctional.

Paul Maillet of the Green Party is quoted as saying: "We elect over 300 MPs to govern Canada and we expect them to govern. In the current political diversity of Canada, with more parties, and less chance of achieving majorities, we are facing a serious crisis of eroding effectiveness in this culture of power politics. No longer does thirty-some per cent of the vote get you 100 per cent of the power. This means either expensive elections every year or a foundational change in our parliamentary culture, and a serious attempt at electoral reform, to meet the challenges of the future. The culture has to evolve from its power obsession to a cooperative culture of coalitions, alliances or partnerships in areas of common interest. The country and the people have to come before self-interest and power. This means electing people with skills in statesmanship, compromise and diplomacy over autocratic and arrogant posturing. This means its time for a big change in who we send to parliament. Its time we assessed our candidates more by their values than their rhetoric. It's time for electoral reform."

Whether you agree or disagree with what he said, he made some points that explain why we are having problems.

The bottom line seems to be, we can't elect a majority government. Now on the other hand, when Prime Minister Trudeau was in Parliament, he was not only charismatic, he had a majority government. The reason he had a majority government was because all the seats in Quebec were the same party as that of the Prime Minister. That is not the case today.

from the FCSS desk

including some points as:

- reducing the tax burden on Canadian families and businesses through significant permanent personal income tax relief

- delivering targeted help to Canadians who are currently out of work, while providing skills training to help them prepare for jobs in the future

- creating jobs through investment in modern green infrastructure and affordable housing

He concluded his remarks by saying: "We have made great progress, but there is more to be done... Our Government remains focused on helping Canadians and is committed to staying on course to ensure our economic recovery."

One direct result of Conservative action to cut corporate taxes, is the fact that Tim Hortons is announcing that they will be moving their head office to Canada. Tim Hortons' choice to make Canada their new base of operations will not only create new jobs and generate economic activity, but it also sends a clear message to other companies around the globe: Canada is a great place to do business.

Therefore, at the end of the day, one can say our current government is dealing with dysfunctional politics and making it work. Yes, I know Michael Ignatieff doesn't agree, as he tends to talk down what the government is doing. He is trying to force an election that Canadians don't want or need; an election that could very well put Canada's economic recovery at risk. Actually, he is enforcing dysfunctional politics.

Thursday is Hockey Night

Replacing the compressor this past summer cost $10,000, but it was on its last leg, and if the plant went down in the middle of the winter, during a tournament, it would be a lot more trouble. This past week we received our insurance bill of $17,000, up from $10,000 a year ago. The roof has been leaking, we patched it a few times but inevitably it will need some new shingles or a new tin roof, sooner than later, most likely next summer. Who knows how much for that, but you know it will be up there somewhere. The power and gas bills are thousands of dollars every month. Money, money, money!

How's that Cage the Elephant song go? "Ain't no rest for the wicked, money don't grow on trees, I got bills to pay and mouths to feed and nothing in this world is for free"

Free, sorry, sucks to be you, buddy - how about this? Painting the lobby and the kitchen, zero dollars for the paint, zero dollars for the labour, complements of CNRL and its employees. Three different crews on three Wednesdays in September applied three coats of paint. It's a bigger job than it looks, even bigger than the boss, Cam Kinniburgh, thought when he offered to do it last spring, and he even put on the work clothes and got into the action himself this past Wednesday, but now it's done and looks great, and a huge thanks goes out to all them.

And how about this: also coming through again this year, thanks to the Town of Elk Point, their employees Chris and George were painting the white ice this past Friday. It took three coats as well, but now it's a nice bright white surface and should be easy to find the puck, especially for some of us. Just have to figure out what to do with it when you get it! That sounds a little bit like the Leafs last Saturday night. Hey, they're not that bad, they just had a rough start, and the Oilers - well, they had a rough finish. I'd still take their goalie over ours any day.

At last night's work bee, the lines went in, today and tomorrow Kyle, the caretaker, will be laying on the heavy floods, building up the ice, and (drum roll!) Thursday night it's Hockey Night in Elk Point.

It was disappointing to find out last Tuesday at the minor hockey meeting that we won't be icing a peewee or midget boys team this year. But we do have teams at every other level and a ton of young, promising players, so we can build on that.

A big Happy Birthday going out tomorrow to a Midget girls hockey player, the beautiful Kelsey "the Champ" Vinge.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week. "If they can fit through the door, I don't want them." Last week's answer to - "Complex, confusing, misunderstood, unclear in every way but one. He is a brilliant coach, the best of his time." - Ken Dryden, describing Scotty Bowman.

PLEBISCITE

On October 26, 2009 the County of St. Paul No. 19 will be holding a plebiscite to ask the citizens of our County to vote on Bylaw 1530 that has been drafted and has received 1st reading in response to a sufficient petition received in April 2009. This petition asked the County to consider having a Reeve elected at large (by a vote of the electors) rather than voted by a vote of the elected officials or Councillors. It also requested that the number of divisions change from the current 7 to 6. What does this mean for the citizens?

Council felt it was important for the citizens to understand what voting yes or no means in this plebiscite. The first thing residents must understand is how the Reeve of the County is currently determined. Municipal elections are held every three years in October. The next municipal election will take place in 2010. When an election is held residents have the opportunity to vote for the person they would like to have represent their interests on County Council. They only vote for the prospective councillor in their division. Currently there are 7 divisions in the County each represented by one Councillor. Following the election and every year in October the municipality must hold an Organizational Meeting. At that meeting the Council members that have been elected in their divisions will elect or choose a Chief Elected Official - or Reeve (in the case of the County of St. Paul) from the 7 members on Council. If the residents of the County vote "NO" in this plebiscite then this will still be how a Reeve will be elected. Also the current division boundaries will not change.

If the residents of the County vote "YES" in this plebiscite there will be some changes leading up to the 2010 municipal election. The first order of business will be the change in divisional boundaries as the petition specifically asked for the divisions to change from 7 to 6. Changing boundaries is somewhat complicated and will be a political decision. According to the Municipal Government Act there is no requirement to have the divisions based on population. There is also not an easy formula that will help to determine where divisional lines are drawn. Therefore it will be Administration's task and could require the help of a consultant to determine where the boundary lines should be for the six new divisions that will be required if this bylaw is passed. Boundaries must be in place 6 months prior to the next general election. This sets the deadline of determining boundaries to be May 2010.

The other implication of a "YES" vote is that residents at the 2010 election will vote for a prospective councillor to represent their division (with its new boundaries), as well, they will vote for a Reeve. The Reeve will be determined based on the vote of the people rather than a vote of the elected officials. The Reeve will be from one of the divisions, however it is perceived that he/she will represent the residents of the County as a whole. Regardless of which division he/she lives in those residents will have a different representative to speak to if they have divisional issues to address.

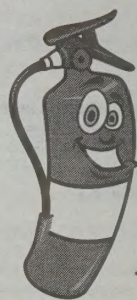

The vote on this plebiscite has the potential to result in the biggest change to governance and divisional boundaries of your County since its inception in 1962. It is important that residents come out to vote to make their views known to Council. We hope that this document provides you with enough information to make an informed decision regarding the vote on the plebiscite to be held on October 26, 2009. There will be an advance poll on October 17, 2009 in St. Paul and Elk Point. There will be 14 Polling Stations available for residents to attend on the actual date of the plebiscite. Please watch the local papers to ensure that you know where the nearest polling station is to you. If you have any further questions regarding the plebiscite please do not hesitate to contact the County Office at (780) 645-3301. Bylaw 1530 is available for download and viewing on the County's webpage www.county.stpaul.ab.ca.

Arena gets a wash job

The A. G. Ross Arena also benefitted from a pre-season scrubbing, with the Volunteer Firefighters bringing both town and county fire trucks and the new tanker to the site on Sept. 21 and giving the floor and boards a good cleaning, while eager-for-ice minor hockey players watched in anticipation of the coming season.

'House' cleaning

Elk Point Volunteer Firefighters sprayed down the plastic that covers the sand under the ice at the Elk Point Curling Club, making short work of what would normally be a labour-intensive cleaning job if done with the conventional hose used to flood the curling sheets. This put the club one step closer to an early opening date for the facility.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Heritage Lodge news

By HEATHER PAQUETTE
Activity Coordinator

What an awesome month September has turned out to be! Ron Fraess drove us to a wiener roast on Sept. 1 with Dick Millar down by the river. On Sept. 8, along with Laverne Wilson, our driver, and volunteers Doris Wilson and Lois Mutch, 11 residents dined at Priscilla Goosen's in Dewberry. After our feast, we explored the incredible Dewberry Museum. Grandparents Day was celebrated at the Seniors Centre. John Paquette drove seven residents to the event. The participants in the walk brought in almost $6,000. The Community Handi Van fund was given one third of this amount to help us with our part of maintaining the van. We are grateful to the Grandparents Day Committee for their donation to our cause.

Our annual outing at Camp St. Louis on Moose Lake was postponed until Oct. 2. Our Spelling Bee on Sept. 17 was attended by four residents and a guest from Fort George. We went several rounds, with Norma Berg winning the contest. The Alzheimer's Coffee Break that same afternoon brought in several lodge residents and a few from Buckingham House. Altogether, we took in a donation of $94.55. The Resident Council meeting scheduled for Sept. 22 brought up ideas from both sides of the fence and concerns were aired and dealt with.

Regular activities have continued with a few additions. We went on one "Walk and Talk" his month. This summer we went to a different café each time. Participating residents have been enjoying the outing, with volunteers Darlene Kozicky and Lyn Young making this possible. On Sept. 4, we armchair traveled to North America, followed by our 'happy hour.' Musical entertainment this month was provided by Andy and Friends on Sept. 9, Toy, Clayton and the Three Js on Sept. 19 and Jerry, Anne and Louis on Sept. 24.

In October, we are looking forward to the Moose Lake outing on Oct. 2, cabbage leaf cutting on Oct 5 and cabbage roll making with our cooking volunteers on Oct. 6. Mindy from the CNIB will do a presentation on Oct. 8 at 1:30 p.m. Our armchair travel this month will be to Turkey, Syria, Israel, Iran and India on Oct. 16. Our favourite clothing company will be here on Oct. 22. Our Halloween Party will be on Oct 30 at 2 p.m. Please dress up in costume for this event and participate - come as you aren't!

Musical entertainment this month will be Homer Poitras on Oct 2, Andy and friends on Oct. 7, Babe Sharkey on Oct. 15, Gabe on Oct. 13 and 20 and the Poulin Brothers on Oct 22.

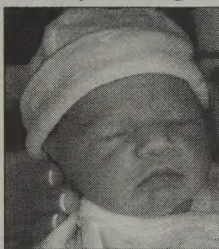

The Auxiliary is looking for more members. Any interested community member is welcome to join. Relatives of residents are especially encouraged to join. Please contact Heather at (780) 724-4449 for more information.

Billy Hudy accepted one of two Barrie Wayne McFadyen Memorial Trades Scholarships from Myrna Fox, sister of the late Barrie McFadyen. James Braga was the other recipient.

Celebrating success at FGM

The ATB Financial award for top Grade 11 academic standing went to Alyx Aarbo, who shared the evening's MC role with Oliver Buck. Both received honour awards, along with Dusty Frisby and Brett Lindquist.

Proud younger sister Jodi accepted the SPERD award for top Grade 12 academic standing on behalf of Nicole Kalynchuk, who also received the Governor General Bronze Academic Medal, the valedictorian award and the first-ever Barrie Wayne McFadyen Memorial Scholarship. The latter goes to a student with a Grade 12 average of 80 per cent or more, who intends to enter post-secondary training in a field related to agriculture, animal husbandry, pre-veterinary training, environmental science or business with the intention of working in one of those fields.

McFadyen was also remembered with the presentation of a Trades scholarship to graduates entering a post-secondary institution and taking a trades apprenticeship program. Billy Hudy accepted his scholarship from Myrna Fox on Thursday evening, with a second scholarship going to James Braga, who was not in attendance at the event.

SPERD school board chair Darrell Youngmans explained that the board is a registered charity and qualifies for Community Spirit grants to match donations such as those made by the McFadyen family. "This year, we have received $16,000 to enhance our division schools. The McFadyens learned about this and decided to provide the extra scholarships for trades."

"We are so delighted that SPERD took this initiative to help honour our loved one," Fox said. "It is our greatest wish that these scholarships will bring hope, encouragement and inspiration to the recipients. These awards reflect the kind of person Barrie was."

The families of three other 2009 grads also picked up awards on their behalf, Cathy Ockerman receiving the County of St. Paul scholarship on behalf of her daughter Robyn, Donna Ockerman accepting the Apple Drugs Math and Science Award for her son Tyson and Oliver Buck accepting the Brailsford Memorial Music Award sponsored by St. George's Masonic Lodge on behalf of his brother Alex.

This year's Bruce Smith Memorial Award went to Brianna White, who was selected as the Grade 10 student who displayed the characteristics of a helpful and caring person, especially helpful to younger students.

Aaron Graus was the recipient of the Great Kid Award sponsored by Servus Credit Union.
